

Principles of Marksmanship

1. The position and hold must be firm enough to support the weapon.
2. The weapon must be held upright and pointed naturally at the target without undue physical effort.
3. Sight alignment (aiming) must be correct.
4. The shot must be released and followed through without disturbing the position of the weapon.

